To the Public.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

The Money Panic.

There was a lull in the panic, yesterday. The scare about Illinois money had sensibly abated; several leading houses receiving it (except the bills of the discredited banks,) at par. Currency was plenty for all legitimate purposes. The Banks sold exchange to their customers. Business proceeded as usual. As their is no good reason for the sudden distrust which sprung up in regard to all Illinois money, a few days will doubtless set matters right again. The West has an abundance to sell which the East must buy; and this will tell upon currency and exchange. Upon the whole, as there is neither need of, nor cause for the panic, we may reasonably conclude that it will not long endure.

A Gloomy Day in Charleston.

The telegraph reports that Tuesday last was "the most gloomy day" yet known in Charleston. Several large houses suspended; planters withheld their cotton; the banks refused to discount; and trade was completely prostrated. Thus early does the threat of secession bear its bitter fruits.—South Carolina is the first and heaviest sufferer. Let her profit by this severe experience, before it be too late; strike her "Palmetto flag;" hoist the "Stars and Stripes;" and discard the traitors who would beguile her to her undoing.

"The Union Men of the South."

The News of yesterday expresses the opinion that "an erroneous impression prevails among the Republicans, in regard to the number and influence of the Union men at the South." According to the News, "the conservatives have been overwhelmingly defeated by the secessionists in most of the Southern States." Such is not the record as we read it. KENTUCKY, MISSOURI, VIRGINIA, TENNESSEE, MARYLAND, DELAWARE, GEORGIA, and LOUISIANA, have all, on the popular vote, pronounced against "the Secessionists." "The supporters of DOUGLAS, or BELL," says the News, cannot exercise "any considerable influence upon the course of the South." They certainly can, if they choose—since there is hardly a Southern State in which their united vote does not largely exceed that of "the Secessionists."

But, continues the News:

> If the North had seriously desired to crush out secession, through the ballot-box, the way to accomplish it was open to her, but she declined to avail herself of this opportunity, and it is possible that another may never present itself. The people of the non-slaveholding States, or, at least, so many of them as cherish Union sentiments, could have voted for Stephen A. Douglas, without sacrificing either honor or principle.

Not so. The Free States could not have voted for DOUGLAS without sacrificing "principle," and if principle, "honor" Even if they had done so, his election would have been just as much a "sectional" triumph, as it is pretended that Mr. LINCOLN's is.—Where is the Southern State that has yet cast its vote for Mr. Douglas?

As a consequence of the Northern vote, the News avers:

> There are probably ten States in the Union where it would be worth a man's life to accept an office under Old Abe, if he had any at this time to bestow. There are several States where a man will not be permitted to remain after it is ascertained that he is a Lincoln man.

This is a sorry picture of a "Free Country." Were it true, it would entail everlasting disgrace upon our Republic. The Despotism of Russia, Austria, Turkey, or Dahomey, would be preferable to that, which declares that an AMERICAN FREEMAN, who dares to avow his preference for Mr. LINCOLN, shall be instantly banished; and if he accepts office under him, shall be punished with death!

In conclusion, the News declares:

> Under these circumstances, it is but natural that the supporters of Douglas and Bell, in those particular States, should prefer to have the Republicans enjoy the fruits of their victory themselves.

In other words, the News holds that the Union men of the South will not interfere to avert the crime and calamity of SECESSION. We have entire faith that they will, and that their interference will prove potential. Already the glorious old Whig State of KENTUCKY has given utterance to her sentiments. The vote of VIRGINIA for BELL is significant of public opinion in the Old Dominion. TENNESSEE, is ever reliable.—MARYLAND, DELAWARE, NORTH CAROLINA, MISSOURI, and LOUISIANA will stand by the Union and their friendly counsel, we do not doubt, will ultimately prevail, even with SOUTH CAROLINA, to trust to the justice, magnanimity and patriotism of the North, rather than seek a desperate remedy for fancied grievances, in the dark abyss of DISUNION.

The Electoral Vote.

The latest returns, though not affecting the LINCOLN column, change our table of the electoral vote in other respects. It now stands thus:

FOR LINCOLN AND HAMLIN.		FOR BRECKINRIDGE & LANE.
Connecticut	6	North Carolina	10
Illinois	11	South Carolina	8
Maine	8	Alabama	9
New Hampshire	5	Florida	3
Vermont	5	Mississippi	7
Massachusetts	13	Arkansas	4
Rhode Island	4	Louisiana	6
New York	35	Maryland	8
Pennsylvania	27	Delaware	3
Ohio	23	Texas	4
Indiana	13	Georgia	10
Michigan	6
Wisconsin	5		72
Iowa	4
Minnesota	4
New Jersey	4
Total	174
FOR BELL.		FOR DOUGLAS.
Virginia	15	New Jersey (probably)	3
Tennessee	12
Kentucky	12
Total	39

TO HEAR FROM.

Missouri 9, probably for Douglas or Bell.
California 4, probably for Douglas or Lincoln.
Oregon 3, probably for Lincoln.

Whole number of votes, 303.

Necessary to a choice, 152.

LINCOLN has already twenty-two more votes than is necessary to effect a choice, with a good chance for several more.

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP.—The Washington County Democrat intimates that Judge L. F. FRISBY, the Republican Assemblyman elect from the West Bend District, is a candidate for the U. S. Senate. There is no foundation whatever for the report. Indeed it is a weak invention of the Democrat's, and doubtless put forth out of small spite—Judge FRISBY having beaten the editor handsomely in the contest for the Assembly.

THE "CHICAGO LEAD."—A rich vein of gold recently discovered at Pike's Peak, in what they call the "Wisconsin District," not far from Mountain City, has been christened "the Chicago Lead." It is said to be full of gold bearing quartz, four feet thick.

THE NORTHERN PEOPLE said on last Tuesday, "Abraham, Abraham," and at night, he said, "here am I."—Richmond (Ky) Messenger.

There is another injunction which the great I Am gave to Abraham which we trust Lincoln will not forget: "Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward, and eastward and westward.—Louisville Jour.

There is no danger that ABRAHAM LINCOLN, or the party to whom he owes his election, will forget, for a moment, that he is chosen President of the whole United States, and not of any section, or fragment of the great Republic.

PENNSYLVANIA THE BANNER STATE.—The Harrisburg Telegraph has returns from all the counties of the State of Pennsylvania, except Forest, giving Lincoln 268,518; Fusion 175,866; Douglas 17,350; Bell 12,745

Lincoln over Fusion, 92,652; over all opposition, 62,517. That will do.

Forest is a new county, which gave 60 majority for Curtin in the October election.

MISSOURI PROBABLY FOR DOUGLAS.—The Missouri Democrat, of Monday last, gives returns from all but five counties in Missouri. The vote stands as follows:

Douglas	58,361
Bell	57,762
Breckinridge	30,297
Lincoln	17,017

DOUGLAS 599 ahead of BELL. The Democrat is of opinion that the remaining five counties cannot change this result.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.—It is remarkable how many Presidents have been chosen by about the same electoral vote.

In 1825,	Jackson received	178	votes
In 1836,	Van Buren "	170	"
In 1844,	Polk "	170	"
In 1848,	Taylor "	163	"
In 1856,	Buchanan "	174	"
In 1860,	Lincoln "	170	"

THE SPRINGFIELD JUBILEE.

Immense Outpouring of the People—Brilliant Illumination—Mr. Lincoln makes a Speech—Senator Trumbull's Exposition of Republican Policy.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.

Verily, Springfield exults to-night over our Republican triumph. The trains that arrived to-day came loaded with strangers to see the signs of our rejoicing; and they have not been disappointed. With the fall of night the city flashed forth a perfect glory of artificial light

It would be impossible to give you an idea of the georgeous array of Chinese lanterns and the incessant boom of guns. the milky-way of Wide-Awake torches, and the ceaseless shouts of the population on the sidewalks. Give your imagination full swing, and picture a truly magnificent ovation. The Wide Awake procession, having passed through the principal streets repaired to Mr. Lincoln's residence and halted. A large concourse of citizens had already preceded them. Loud calls being made for Mr. Lincoln, he appeared in the door, and after the applause which greeted him had subsided, he said:

"FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS:—Please excuse me on this occasion from making a speech. I thank you for the kindness and compliment of your call. I thank you in common with all others who have thought fit by their votes to endorse the Republican cause. [Applause.] I rejoice with you in the success which has so far attended that cause. [Applause.] Yet, in all our rejoicing, let us neither express nor cherish any harsh feelings towards any citizen, who, by his vote, has differed with us. [Loud cheers.]

Let us at all times remember that all American citizens are brothers of a common country, and should dwell together in the bonds of fraternal feeling. [Immense applause.] Let me again beg you to accept my thanks, and to excuse me from further speaking at this time."

Not only was almost every sentence applauded, but at the conclusion, cheers followed for Mr. Lincoln, Mrs Lincoln, Gov. Yates, etc., etc. The crowd now adjourned to the Wigwam, where Mr. Trumbull made a short speech, beginning by recounting the reasons why Republicans should rejoice and congratulate one another, and predicting that henceforth the country would enjoy the pure and happier days of the early Republic.

Mr Lincoln, although the candidate of the Republican party, as Chief Magistrate, will neither belong to that or any other party. When inaugurated he will be the President of the country, and the whole country; and I doubt not will be as ready to defend and protect the State in which he has not received a solitary vote against any encroachment upon its constitutional rights, as the one in which he has received the largest majority. While they by whose votes he has been designated the Chief Magistrate of the Republic will expect to maintain and carry forward the principles on which he was elected, they know that in doing so no encroachments will be made on the reserved rights of any of the States. Proceeding further to elucidate Republican principles and Republican policy, Senator Trumbull said it should be a matter of rejoicing to all true Republicans that they will now have an opportunity of demonstrating to their political opponents, and to the world, that they are not for interfering with the domestic institutions of any of the States, and that they are not the advocates of negro equality, nor amalgamation, with which political demagogues have so often charged them. When this is shown, a reaction will certainly take place in favor of Republicanism; the Southern mind, even, will be satisfied; the rights of Northern men will be respected, and the fraternal feeling existing in olden time, when men of all parts of the country went forth together to battle for a common cause against a common enemy, will be restored.

The speech was remarkable for its concise statement of Republican doctrines and purpose, and for the firm, yet conciliatory, tone. He reviewed the causes of complaint by the South against the Republican party, and set them aside, one by one; and he went at considerable length into an enumeration of the lasting benefits which Mr. Lincoln's rule would confer upon the country. He dwelt upon the national aspect of the question as it now stands; and finally expressed the opinion that all jarring interests would finally be harmonized, and that the government would go on in peace. His reference to the Secession movement was happy and pointed; but he said no word which could be offensively regarded by any except a confirmed disunionist. Taken as a whole, his speech is believed to have been made by Mr. Lincoln's approbation; and it is not doubted that it is a tolerable faithful reflex of the views of the President elect. It was received with immense applause by the great crowd to which it was addressed; but, as you will unquestionably print it entire, I need not attempt even a syllabus of what was said.

He concluded amid much enthusiasm, after which there were addresses by Gov. Yates, Donn Piatt, Judge Palmer and others. As I write the Wigwam is still filled with eager listeners and the streets are noisy with the shouts of the crowds that are witnessing the grandest finale of pyrotechnics which this city has ever seen.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—By a private letter from Lodi we have the particulars of a melancholy accident which occurred in that town on the 14th inst., to Henry Palmer, son of Judge Palmer, causing his instant death. He was attempting to cover one of the Judge's horses with a buffalo robe, when the animal became frightened and started to run. He caught him by the bit, was thrown down and his skull broken in a most shocking manner. Young Henry was very much esteemed in the community and his sudden death cast a deep gloom over the village.—Portage Record, 21st.

NOVEL STYLE OF DEER HUNTING.—As the Berlin City was on her downward trip one day last week, upon entering lake Butte des Mortes, a deer was espied swimming in the water. The boat was immediately headed for his buckship, and after a short race, run down, a boat hook and butcher knife did the finishing strokes, and the four quarters were soon hung up to dry in the wind.

A SENSIBLE CONCLUSION.—The Atlanta, Ga., American, after certain calculations, in which figures don't lie, concludes, "Sixthly, all who are in favor of civil war, starvation, ruin, desolation, robbery, arson, murder, and the utter destruction of the South, should go for disunion, if LINCOLN is elected."

THE SEASON.—The prospects are favorable for an unusually merry season in town. The programme already marked by the ball-goers is suggestive of a brilliant winter. We have not heard that any theatrical company will visit us, though negotiations are pending; but with home talent and an extra rush of vocalists, lectures and scenic displays, attracted when they think there is plenty of money, we shall get along well enough. The Musical Society are in active preparation for the campaign, and under their new leader, will doubtless achieve fresh triumphs. Their first concert of the season will be given on Monday, November 26, at Albany Hall. The programme, as usual, is composed principally of VON WEBER's and FLOTOW's heavy overtures and duettes. One ballad by SCHUBERT and HEMPSTED's Garibaldi March. We may expect a foreign artiste along in regular succession, and perhaps those very popular (to a Milwaukee public) musicians, the "nigger bands."—Speaking of the latter, we heard a gentleman remark recently that the only exhibitions yet given in the Academy of Music that paid, were by negro minstrels. This seems rather strange, but is no doubt true.

CHURCH FESTIVAL AND CONCERT.—There is to be a festival and concert at the Spring Street Congregational Church this (Thursday) evening. The enterprise has been undertaken by the ladies connected with that Society, for the purpose of raising funds to discharge an old debt contracted in the completion of the Church edifice. From the programme of exercises we are assured that the affair will prove as highly attractive, as its object is laudable. Messrs. ABBOTT & DICKINSON's Harp Band has been engaged for the occasion, and will discourse the "concord of sweet sounds," in various styles, from "Old Hundred" to "Dixie's Land."—A supper will be provided for those who desire a foretaste of Thanksgiving, while various other opportunities will be afforded to gratify one's taste, or fancy, to the extent of a becoming and Christian charity. Single tickets of admission for twenty-five cents, and family tickets for seventy-five, will be sold at the door. We bespeak for their entertainment a large attendance, and a cordial response to the appeal which they make, to those connected with older and more wealthy Churches, "to come over and help us."

GATE'S NEW PIANOS.—We yesterday saw, at the musical Repository of VAN COTT, a new piano from the factory of GATE & Co., New York, which, in many respects, is superior to the pianos now made. It is called a new scale piano, with overstrung bass string, an arrangement that gives a new roundness and brilliancy to the tone and a power not surpassed by a grand action instrument. The improvement is an important one, rendering, as it does, a piano—the price of which is $325—quite equal in quality and intensity of its note with an instrument costing double that amount.

Mr. VAN COTT has a large supply of pianos, melodians, &c., together with an immense stock of music.

GEORGE C. STEVENS—the well known music teacher—can always be found at the store rooms in Bowman's Block.

AN ADMIRALTY DECISION.—In the case of J. A. DUTCHER and others vs. the Propeller Rocket, Judge MILLER, of the U. S. District Court, has given a decree for the libellants. The following is a synopsis of the points decided:

"If a respondent in Admiralty has not filed a full, explicit, and distinct answer, and no exceptions to it are filed, objections on the part of the libellant to reading testimony at the hearing for insufficiency of the answer when taken in the presence of libellant's counsel, will not be entertained.

A steam vessel running along the lake shore in the night, in a dense fog, is bound to stop, or slacken speed, and heave the line, and use the whistle, or put out to sea.

A dense fog is a danger of navigation; but to excuse the vessel, it must be shown that proper skill and diligence were used to avoid the accident, when the bill of lading contains the usual clause of "dangers of navigation excepted."

Deflection of the compass from some accidental, or unforseen cause, may be a danger of navigation; but before the Court would consider it an excuse for an accident, it must be clearly shown, by undoubted proof, that the officers of the vessel understood and discharged their full duty.

The facts of this case show that the officers and wheelman were incompetent, and did not discharge their duty."

WHAT'S IN A NAME.—The SMITH family is aggrieved that so many of its members get into the Municipal Court, and suggests the alias of "SNUBB." We have noticed of late that Richard Roe and John Doe have been passing under the alias of SMITH, and are glad to see the ancient and honorable family protest.

We would suggest to the Municipal Court the propriety of having a list of names prepared for the use of those who come into Court and wish to make a change.

JUDGE LARRABEE.—We were happy to meet Judge LARRABEE, yesterday, almost entirely recovered from the injuries he received, by a fall from the roof of his house, a few days ago. He will, no doubt, be able to resume his duties in Congress, at the opening of the session.

CHANGE OF VENUE—THE LYNCH CASE.—Application was made on Tuesday by M. H. CARPENTER for a change of venue in the remaining Counts against LYNCH. The Court refused to entertain the motion for the following reasons:

STATE OF WISCONSIN,
vs.
R. B. Lynch,

The defendant, Robert B. Lynch, having this day appeared in this Court with his counsel, and No. 16 of indictment pending in this Court entitled as above having been tried and indictment No. 22, so pending and same title having been removed to the Circuit Court for said County of Milwaukee for trial upon a petition made and verified by said deft., containing offensive and impertinent matter, insulting to the Judge of this Court, (which offensive and impertinent matter was not observed by the Judge of this Court at the time of filing said petition)

The Counsel for defendant now present a petition in each of the other cases so pending and entitled (one of said petitions only being verified,) all of the petitions last mentioned being copies of aforesaid petition, in No. 22 and containing the same offensive matter, and offers to file said petitions, and moves that upon said petitions and by virtue thereof the cause in which they were made be removed from his Court, for trial at said Circuit Court—it is therefore hereby ordered that the Clerk of this Court refuse to file such petitions, or either of them, and that such petitions be returned forthwith to the Counsel by whom they were presented.

By the Court,
[Signed.] JAS MALLORY, Judge.
Dated, Milwaukee, Nov. 19th, 1860.
A true copy of original this day filed.
WM. KENNEDY, Clerk.

Investigation Needed.

Prisoners come to the County Jail almost daily, complaining of inhuman treatment at the Police Station. That they are kept there from 24 to 36 hours without food, which is corroborated by the inordinate appetite they exhibit when brought to us. A woman, brought up yesterday in this condition, testified that she left a girl there who had been there five days, without a bed, fire or proper food. Besides, after a most urgent remonstrance for a long period of time, the prisoners come up covered with lice, and bed-bugs "large enough to eat corn."—There is no excuse for this state of things, and, as a last resort, I make it public in hopes to correct it.

A. J. LANGWORTHY, Sheriff.

THE SEGER CASE was submitted to the jury yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. They were out during the remainder of the day, and up to 8 o'clock last evening, no verdict had been rendered.

P. S.—The jury in the case of the State vs. SEGER, after being out some ten hours, came into court about 8 o'clock last evening, and stated that they were unable to agree on a verdict. They were thereupon discharged.

A GOOD CHANCE FOR CAPITAL.—We noticed some time since the rare chance offered by the advertisement of Mr. FLANDERS, which appears still in another part of our paper, of a water power, woolen factory, saw mill and tannery for sale. We have since been more deeply impressed with the advantage of this offer, and fully satisfied that an enterprising man desirous of making a good investment could not do better than turn his attention in that direction. The property is at Baraboo, the county seat of Sauk county, Wisconsin. Everything is new and in good order, with good dwelling house and forty-six acres of land. It is too valuable a location to remain long in the market.

LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday about noon a lamentable accident occurred to Mr. MILLER, well-known as "Long John Miller." It will be recollected that some time since he broke one of his legs, and was getting so as to be about again, when yesterday he fell on the sidewalk in East Water street, between Huron and Michigan, and broke his leg again in the same place that was formerly injured. He was carried into a store, and was removed thence to his home. This is deeply to be lamented He is an enterprising, worthy man, and much respected generally.

WELSH REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.—A meeting of the Milwaukee Welsh Republican Club will be held at Sivyer's Hall, on Friday evening, at half-past seven o'clock. As business of importance will be brought before the Club, let every member be present. By order of the Committee.

EVAN R. JONES, Sec'y.

Wisconsin and Free Democrat please copy.

AN ATTEMPT was made yesterday by a few reckless democrats, to incense the more ignorant of the German population by telling them the depreciation in currency was the direct consequence of LINCOLN's election. The attempt succeeded, inasmuch as a few went about and retailed the story; and were as far from believing it as the man who originated it.

GONE TO HAVANA.—L. MORSE, of the firm of MORSE BROS., has gone to Havana—partly on account of his health and partly to buy up all the bona fide cigars in Cuba. He has already sent one box of Letemripeos as a sample, and the run upon the store is positively dreadful.

MILWAUKEE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.—An important notice to the Farm Mortgagors and Stockholders of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad Company, will be found in our advertising columns this morning. Parties interested will do well to heed and act upon the notice thus given.

E. L'H. GARDINER.—In the case of E. L'H. GARDINER, ex-City Comptroller, the District Attorney has commenced a suit in the name of the State against JOSEPH R. TREAT and GEO. D. DOUSMAN, the bondsmen of GARDINER, for $5,000.

FELL IN A FIT.—A gentleman named WHITTLESEY, residing on the corner of Marshall and Wisconsin streets, fell to the pavement yesterday in a fit, while walking on Wisconsin street. He was conveyed to his home.

ILLINOIS MONEY AT PAR.—NAZRO & Co. will take Illinois money at par in exchange for their goods—excepting the few discredited banks. We need not say that NAZRO & Co.'s goods are as good as gold.

ELGIN RELIEF FUND.—The undersigned hereby acknowledges the receipt of $100, contributed by the German Young Men's Association of Watertown, Wis., to the fund for relief of the sufferers by the Lady Elgin disaster. H. L. PAGE, Treasurer.

We are glad to see a disposition on the part of Manufacturers in this country to excel in quality, and of consumers to purchase the best in the market, especially in the articles which enter into the food of man. We are led to the above remarks since having the pleasure of eating some very nice light biscuit, made from Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Our better-half pronounces it the best she ever saw. Try it. Most of the Grocers and many Druggists sell it.

An urgent necessity has long been felt for a reliable tonic stimulant calculated to obviate the evils, the depression of spirits, the lassitude and languor of the corporeal frame consequent upon dyspepsia and diseases of the digestive organs. And it was just for this purpose that ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS has been prepared, claiming no merits beyond what the standard reliable agents of the Materia Medica are known to possess. But Mr. Atwood does not claim that his preparation is compounded with more science and skill than any other article of its kind, and experience has proved it to be the BEST and MOST RELIABLE.

AGAIN WE SAY,—Use De Land & Co.'s Saleratus; if you have any regard for yourself or family, throw to the dogs the miserable, impure stuff which has so long exercised your patience, and made your bread, pastry, &c., disgusting to look at or to taste. De Land's Chemical Saleratus is perfectly pure, and will produce the most satisfactory result when used in preparing food. It is sold by most grocers and storekeepers. A NEW Hoop and Rattan Machine!!

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS SUCCEEDED in producing Machines for the purpose of splitting and dressing Hoops. The principles developed in the Machines are admired by mechanics for simplicity and durability, as well as the light power required to operate them, in consequence of the oscillating or vibrating motion of the splitting Knife applied to opening the pole, with a perfect and simple arrangement for entering it, and requiring no alteration in splitting the smallest keg to large hogshead hoops, and is equally well adapted to splitting Rattans, Osiers, Willows and Basket Stuff. The machines have received the highest premiums at the late Fairs at Boston and Baltimore.

Parties wanting Machines we would refer to Mr. P. A. BASSET, of Baraboo, Wis., who has a sett in operation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

THERE IS A RARE OPPORTUNITY for a good BLACKSMITH and a good SHOEMAKER to establish themselves in a lucrative business, in the town of Herseyville, in Monroe County, Wisconsin. Being a new place, the owner of the lands in the vicinity of the depot proposes to furnish building lots for shops and dwellings, to a limited number, FREE, so as to enable some industrious, but poor mechanics, an excellent chance to better their immediate prospects. The place is thriving, and has, at present, some two or three hundred farmers within half a mile of the depot; also two good water powers within half a mile of the depot; also post-office and store. Large quantities of wheat are shipped daily from this Station.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 22, 1860.

An Imposter Played Out.

Carl Schurz promised, the other night, never to forget the brilliant reception given him on his return to this city from New York, just prior to the election.—The remembrance of it may be sweet to him, but it is bitter enough to our merchants, bankers, produce dealers and shippers. They would be glad to efface from their memories the recollection of carrying torches and banners through the streets on the occasion of his returning from a brief visit to the east.

He may boast of it, but they do not feel much like bragging over such a shameful exhibition of their folly. The practical effects of attempting to carry out the principles promulgated by him, is now too apparent to admit of any further deception on his part.—He is played out.

But yesterday the word of Schurz might
Have stood against the world; now lies he there,
And none so poor as to do him reverence.

—News of Yesterday.

Carl Schurz will yet be the death of the News. He haunts its dreams by night, and troubles its thoughts by day. The bare mention of his name sours its temper, and whenever he makes a speech, it goes into convulsions.

Carl Schurz did well to return his heartfelt acknowledgments to the people of Milwaukee for the ovation they gave him on his return from the brilliant campaign in Pennsylvania, Indiana and New York; and the remembrance of it is as pleasant to "our merchants, bankers, produce dealers and shippers," who participated in it, as it is to the distinguished recipient himself. Were it to be done over again, they would do it with a will; as they testified by the cordial reception they gave Mr. Schurz at Albany Hall, last Friday evening. Our merchants and business men are not children to be frightened by the News' ghost stories; nor do they belong to that commercial class, who sell their principles, as well as their goods. They are abundantly satisfied with the results of the Presidential election; and none the less so that sham Democracy howls so piteously over the impending loss of power and place. And they gratefully recognize the eminent services of such men as Carl Schurz in the memorable contest which has been so gloriously crowded by the election of Abraham Lincoln. It is the News, not Carl Schurz, that is effectually "played out."

The Indebtedness of the South.

The New York Post says "the public debt alone of the Southern States has been increasing for the last ten years at the rate of $1,000,000 a month, and now amounts, we are advised, to more than $120,000,000, independent of her debts to merchants and her local municipal debts, which the Northern people know to their cost, is very considerable." It maintains that from the failure of the crops in the South, from over-trading in negroes, and from the general mismanagement, the South has brought herself to the verge of bankruptcy. It believes that affairs need squaring there as they did at the West in 1857, and that however severe the crash may be, it will be better for all that it should come, and that business should then be carried on upon a better basis.

The large indebtedness of the Cotton States to the North is one of the springs of the Secession movement. Repudiation would be a very cheap way of paying these debts. Hence it is that dishonest men and unprincipled lawyers at the South are returning all Northern claims sent to them for collection. But the Secessionists will speedily discover that in this, as in other matters, honesty is the best policy.

Illinois Money—A Timely Reminder.

The Chicago Journal of Tuesday evening, after giving the list (published in yesterday's Sentinel) of the Illinois Banks which were thrown out in that city, adds the following pertinent remarks:

> It does not follow, however, because these are discredited, that their notes are not good. Indeed, some and perhaps nearly all of them may, and no doubt will, yet make the necessary deposits. They have thirty-five days in which to do it, and before the expiration of that time, the condition of financial affairs may so change, that the bankers may deem it not expedient to allow their institutions to be closed. At all events, there cannot be much lost on the notes, and holders should not be alarmed, and submit to an unnecessary sacrifice.
> Many will remember the result in respect to the Bank of Belleville, which was wound up by the auditor about three years since. During the panic, the brokers bought up its notes at a heavy discount, but all of them were redeemed, dollar for dollar, in gold, and a surplus of some $6,000 was left. Such may be case with the banks above named.

Holders of Illinois money will do well to heed the advice of the Journal, and not submit to the heavy shave which the brokers demand to convert these bills into currency.

Suicidal Effect of Secession.—The Washington Star, formerly an Administration organ, takes a sensible view of the effect of secession. It significantly asks, "who is there that does not perceive that the election of Lincoln is not the cause of, but rather the mere opportunity for the present attitude of South Carolina, with reference to the future of the South, in which her interest is, to make the most of it, not a tithe of that of Virginia, Maryland, or Kentucky. Where she now loses one dollar by the escape of slaves, each of those States loses one hundred. Were her current scheme carried out, they would lose five thousand dollars in that way, where she would lose five dollars; yet forsooth, Mr. Keitt claims for South Carolina the right thus to jeopardize, without Virginia's consent, her vast property-interest in slaves, under the plea of seeking greater security for slave property, when it is at this moment as secure as any property, without exception, under the government of the United States."

More Official Returns.—The Menominee Lumberman brings the official vote of Dunn county. Lincoln receives 564 votes, Douglas 341, Breckinridge 9. Lincoln's majority 214. Hanchett, for Congress, has 183 majority.

Pepin county, official, gives 326 for Lincoln, 105 for Douglas, 11 for Breckinridge. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 221; over all 210. Hanchett, for Congress, 226 majority.

Buffalo county, official, gives 459 for Lincoln to 189 for Douglas. Majority 270.

Portage, official, 941 for Lincoln to 471 for Douglas. Majority 470.

Eau Claire, official, 148 majority for Lincoln.

Oconto, official, 313 majority for Lincoln; 328 for Sloan.

A Fire-Eater's Proclamation.

We publish herewith the Proclamation of Governor Pettus, of Mississippi, convening the Legislature of that State, in extra session, on the 26th of the present month. It presents a marked contrast, in tone and language, with that of Governor Letcher, of Virginia, calling together the Legislature of his State, which will also be found in today's Sentinel. The offensive allusions of Gov. Pettus to "the people of the non-slaveholding States;" his gross misrepresentation of the principles and purposes of the Republican party; his ill-mannered sneer at "Black Republican oaths;" and his sectional appeal to the passions and prejudices of the South, are in the worst possible taste, and only go to prove his unfitness for the post which he occupies. Can it be a matter of wonder that the Cotton States, under such leaders, should, for the moment, go astray? But their "sober second thought" will, we are confident, soon bring them back to the path of Patriotism and Duty:

Proclamation—By John J. Pettus, Governor of the State of Mississippi.

Whereas, the people of the non slaveholding States have, in various forms, declared purposes hostile to the institutions of the slaveholding States, and the State governments of nearly all the Northern States have evinced a settled purpose to evade their constitutional obligations, and disregard their oaths in carrying on this war on the rights and institutions of the Southern States;

And whereas, the recent election of Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin demonstrates that those who neither reverence the constitution, obey the laws or regard their oaths, have now the power to elect to the highest offices in this confederacy men who sympathize with them in all their mad zeal to destroy the peace, property and prosperity of the Southern section, and who will use the powers of the federal government to defeat all the purposes for which it was formed; and whereas, the dearest rights of the people depend for protection, under our constitution, on the fidelity to their oaths of those who administer the government.

Now, therefore, that the State of Mississippi will be enabled to take into consideration the propriety and necessity of providing surer and better safeguards for the lives, liberties and properties of her citizens than have been found, or are to be hoped for, in black republican oaths:

I, John Pettus, Governor of the state of Mississippi, exercising the powers in me vested by the constitution; do hereby convene the legislature of this state, and do appoint Monday, the 26th day of November instant, for the meeting of the House of the legislature, at the capitol in Jackson, the seat of government in this state.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed, at the city of Jackson, the 13th day of Nov., A. D. 1860, and of the sovereignty of the state of Mississippi the forty-fourth.

[L.S.] JOHN J. PETTUS.

C. A. Brougher, Sec'y of State.

Governor Letcher's Proclamation.

The following is the Proclamation just issued by Gov. Letcher, of Virginia, calling an extra session of the Legislature. Its tone is moderate and suggests that Virginia has something else to do beside dissolving the Union. Even the allusion to the result of the late election, and the possible necessity that Virginia should take some action thereon, is in a cautious phraseolgy, very different from the Bombastes Furioso style prevalent farther South:

> "Whereas, at the last session of the Legislature a large amount of the public business was left in an unfinished condition for want of time to complete the same, and, whereas, since that time a contract has been entered into by the James River and Kanawha Company for the sale of its entire line of improvements with all its franchises and immunities, including the large interests held therein by the Commonwealth, and with stipulations for the completion of the entire work, and it is necessary that the contract if approved should be ratified by the General Assembly to give validity and force to the agreement so made.
> And, whereas, in consequence of the appointment of Electors, a majority of whom are known to be favorable to the election of sectional candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, whose principles and views are believed by a large portion of the Southern States to be in direct hostility to their constitutional rights and interests, and in consequence thereof great excitement prevails in the public mind and prudence requires that the representatives of the people of this Commonwealth should take in consideration the condition of public affairs and determine calmly and wisely what action is necessary in this emergency, therefore, I, John Letcher, Governor by virtue of the authority aforesaid, do hereby require the Senators and Delegates of the two Houses of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth to convene at the Capitol in the city of Richmond on Monday, the 7th day of January, A. D., 1861, at 12 o'clock P. M., to legislate upon such subjects as they may deem necessary and proper.

The Condition of Foreign Aid.—A notorious Disunionist, who holds a Federal appointment, was recently bragging what South Carolina was going to do in revenge for Lincoln's election. When asked if she should secede alone, where she would get troops, having only about one-half as many voters as New York city, he replied, "From France or England." A diplomatist was present, and in answer to the inquiry if France would assist, he replied, "Oh, yes! if South Carolina would abolish Slavery!"

Sport in South Africa.—During the visit of Prince Alfred to Bloemfontein, he was entertained by Mr. Bain, who determined to give his Royal Highness some sport. Accordingly he collected 1000 Kaffirs to act as game beaters, and so well did they do their work that before the Prince was ready an immense multitude of wildebeestes and other game dashed past. Hog-spears, assegais, and guns found plenty of employment. The Bloemfontein Gazette tells the result:—"While the game were careering past the house, the Prince dropped two blesboks. The hunt afterwards resembled the end of a battle more than a hunt. There, advancing rapidly in a line, were the huntsmen (how many we cannot tell, but all possessing guns), and further on, were the unarmed enemy, falling thick, and gradually edging away in the direction of the living hedge of Kaffirs, who again forced them back. The slaughter was tremendous, considering that it did not endure above an hour. How many fell on the spot, or died afterwards of their wounds, or were caught by the Kaffirs, it would be difficult to tell. The Prince shot 24 to his own gun. Young Mr. Jocelyn shot four. The number which is reported to have fallen may be accounted for by keeping in view that one rifle bullet may kill, and certainly wound, some three antelopes, under the circumstances we have been describing. A gentleman interested in the result took some pains to ascertain from the Kaffirs (who reaped the benefit of the hunt) the approximate tally. They say that between 800 and 1000 had come to grief in consequence of the hunt, consisting of blesbok (gazelle albifrons), wildebeeste (catoblepas gnu), ostrich, bonte or striped quaggas (equus burchelli), and springboks. In the stampede, even horses which had been peaceably grazing on the flats joined in the rush, and two even took shelter in the W. C. at Bain's Vley. In the excitement four Kaffir horses were shot. It is conjectured that altogether the game has been, up to yesterday, thinned to the tune of 5000 head. It would be tedious to relate what every one killed, including Sir George Grey, Sir Walter Currie, Major Cawell, Mr. Rivers, Lieutenant Colonel Bisset, the 'Dirty Boys,' and others. Suffice it to say, that such a hunt, taken with all its concomitant circumstances and incidents, has not taken place in any part of the civilized world within the present century."

Maryland Speaking.—The following call we find in the Cambridge Intelligencer, a paper published in Dorchester county, one of the largest slaveholding counties in the State. This is the sentiment of ninety-nine one-hundredths of our people, and when the time shall come for them to speak out, it will be with a trumpet tongue from the Alleghanies to the shore of the Chesapeake:

> "We are requested to announce that there will be a public meeting held at the Court House on Monday week, 19th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of condemning the disunion policy of certain Southern States, and expressing a devotion and a determination to sustain Mr. Lincoln in the administration of the government. We heartily commend the movement of our citizens. A prompt and decided action in favor of the supremacy of the laws and the Union of the States upon the part of the conservative citizens of the South, will infuse into the Southern heart a spirit of loyalty which will effectually destroy the iniquitous schemes of the mad disunionists. This is no party meeting. It is a meeting of citizens. Democrats, Douglas men, Republicans and Union men are invited. Let the people meet, and let the people speak."—Baltimore Patriot.

Webster on the Right of Secession.

For the Sentinel.

Milwaukee, Nov. 19th, 1860.

Mr. Editor:—At this present time, when South Carolina, Georgia, and other Southern States are speaking in tones of threat and defiance, it is proper and meet to revert to a similar position South Carolina placed herself in twenty-seven years ago, under President Jackson.

Don't you think Mr. Webster's remarks made in 1833 hold good now. Should'nt wonder. Let the dead speak then!

A. H. B.

DANIEL WEBSTER ON "NULLIFICATION AND SECESSION."

Extracts from his great Speech in the Senate, February 16th, 1833, in reply to Mr. Calhoun from South Carolina.

Mr. Webster said:

"The resolutions introduced by the gentleman (Mr. Wilkins, of South Carolina) were apparently drawn up with care. These resolutions are three in number. The first two resolutions affirm these propositions, viz:

1. That the political system under which we live, and under which Congress is now assembled, is a compact, to which the people of the several States, as separate and sovereign communities, are the parties.

2. That these sovereign parties have a right to judge, each for itself, of any alleged violation of the Constitution by Congress, and, in case of such violation, to choose, each for itself, its own mode and measure of redress.

* * * * * * * *

The necessary import of the resolutions is, that the United States are connected only by a league; that it is in the good pleasure of every State to decide how long she will choose to remain a member of this league; that any State may determine the extent of her own obligations under it, and accept or reject what shall be decided by the whole; that she also may determine whether her rights have been violated, what is the extent of the injury done her, and what mode and measure of redress her wrongs may make it fit and expedient for her to adopt. The result of the whole is, that any State may secede at pleasure; that any State may resist a law which she herself may choose to say exceeds the power of Congress; and that, as a sovereign power, she may redress her own grievances by her own arm, at her own discretion; she may make reprisals; she may cruise against the property of other members of the league, she may authorize captures, and make open war.

If, sir, this be our political condition, it is time the people of the United States understood it. Let us look to the practical consequence of these opinions. One State, holding an embargo law unconstitutional, may declare her opinion and withdraw from the Union. She secedes. Another, forming and expressing the same judgment on a law laying duties on imports, may withdraw also. She secedes. But, sir, a third State is of opinion, not only that those laws of import are constitutional, but that it is the absolute duty of Congress to pass and to maintain such laws. * * * If Congress now refuse to exercise it, Congress does, as she may insist, break the condition of the grant, and thus manifestly violate the Constitution; and for this violation of the Constitution, she may threaten to secede also. Virginia may secede, and hold the fortresses in the Chesapeake. The Western States may secede, and take to their use the public lands. Louisiana may secede, if she choose, form a foreign alliance, and hold the mouth of the Mississippi. If one State may secede, ten may do so—twenty may do so—twenty three may do so. Sir, as these secessions go on, one after another, what is to constitute the United States? Where will be the army? Where the navy? Who will pay the debts? Who fulfill the public treaties? Who govern this District and the Territories? Who retain the public property? Every man must see that these are all questions which can rise only after a revolution. While the Constitution lasts, they are repressed; they spring up to annoy and startle us only from its grave.

Secession, therefore, since it must bring these consequences with it, is revolutionary. And nullification is equally revolutionary.—

* * * * * * * *

If Carolina now shall effectually resist the laws of Congress, if she shall be her own judge, take her remedy into her own hands, obey the laws of the Union when she pleases, and disobey them when she pleases, she will relieve herself from a paramount power as distinctly as did the American colonies in 1776. In other words, she will achieve, as to herself, a revolution. * *

In opposition to reason and argument, in opposition to practice and experience, in opposition to the judgment of others having an equal right to judge, she says, only, "Such is my opinion, and my opinion shall be my law, and I will support it by my own strong hand. I denounce the law; I believe it unconstitutional; that is enough; it shall not be executed. Men in arms are ready to resist its execution. An attempt to enforce it will cover the land with blood. Elsewhere, it may be binding, but here it is trampled under foot."

This, sir, is practical nullification And now, sir, against all these theories and opinions, I maintain—

First—That the Constitution of the United States is not a league, confederacy, or compact, between the people of the several States in their sovereign capacities; but a Government proper, founded on the adoption of the people, and creating direct relations between itself and individuals.

Second. That no State authority has power to dissolve these relations; that nothing can dissolve them but revolution; and that, consequently, there can be no such thing as secession without revolution.

Third. That there is a supreme law, consisting of the Constitution of the United States, acts of Congress passed in pursuance of it, and treaties.

Fourth. That an attempt by a State to abrogate, annul or nullify an act of Congress, or to arrest its operation within her limits, on the ground that, in her opinion, such law is unconstitutional, is a direct usurpation of the just powers of the general Government, and on the equal rights of other States; a plain violation of the Constitution, and a proceeding essentially revolutionary in its character and tendency.

* * * * * * * *

Can anything be conceived more preposterous than that any State should have power to nullify the proceedings of the general Government respecting peace and war? When war is declared by a law of Congress, can a single State nullify that law and remain at peace? And yet she may nullify that law as well as any other. It the President and Senate make peace, may one State, nevertheless, continue the war? And yet, if she can nullify the law, she may quite as well nullify a treaty. The people, sir, in every State, live under two Governments. They owe obedience to both.

It is the peculiar system of America, and though new and singular is not incomprehensible. The State constitutions are established by the people of the States. This constitution is established by the people of all the States. How, then, can a State secede? How can a State undo what the whole people have done? How can she absolve her citizens from their obedience to the laws of the United States? How can she annul their obligations, and oaths? How can the members of the legislature renounce their own oaths?

Sir, secession, as a revolutionary right, is intelligible; as a right to be proclaimed amidst civil commotions, and asserted at the head of armies, I can understand it.

But as a practical right, existing under the Constitution, and in conformity with its provisions, it seems to me to be nothing but a plain absurdity; for it supposes resistance to Government, under the authority of Government itself; it supposes dismemberment, without violating the principles of Union; it supposes opposition to law, without crime; it supposes the violation of oaths, without responsibility; it supposes the total overthrow of Government, without revolution.

* * * * * * * *

The Constitution declares that new States may come into the Union, but it does not declare that old States may go out."

Anti-Repudiation in South Carolina.—The Bank of New York has received a letter of which the following is an extract, from one of its correspondents in the interior of the State of South Carolina:

> "I deem it a duty (unanimously approved of by the Board of Directors of this Bank) to say to you, that under any emergency that may arise this bank will not countenance the repudiation of, or refusal to pay any note, draft or bill sent here for collection by any Northern Bank or merchant, but will discountenance every intimation of the kind, and force, to the full extent of the law, the protection of their commercial rights against our own citizens who may be indebted to them.
> We have understood that the lawyers are, in many towns, refusing to collect Northern paper, and that more merchants have resolved to repudiate their obligations. I can safely say we have no such hypocritical bankrupts with us; and I know the judiciary of South Carolina will raise their strong arm against it. It has been intimated that the banks should also refuse to collect Northern bills or notes due by Southern merchants. I do not entertain the opinion that they can be made to favor such a dishonorable proceeding. This Bank never will."

BOOK-KEEPING

And commercial pursuits generally. It is now in a flourishing condition, and is working under a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION. The rooms are large and commodious, and are fitted up in splendid style. On introducing the subject to the student, he is led carefully, step by step, through the fundamental and general features of the science; and when these are fully realized, he is required to embark into a career of general speculation and merchandising, framing and adjusting contracts, purchases, sales, &c., and making the necessary entries in the principal and auxiliary books, in precisely the same manner and order as they are made by the skillful Book-Keeper in the counting-room of actual business.

Thus when the work is completed, the Student finds himself, not a mere theoretical, but a practical accountant, being fully conversant with every branch of this interesting and important science, as applied to General Mercantile, Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Importing, Exporting, Foreign and Domestic Shipping, Stocks, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Mining, Steamboating, Railroading and business of Compound or Company speculation, in each of which, he has met with adverse as well as prosperous operation.

American Watches,

MADE BY THE

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY,

AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Attention is invited to the following statement and the accompanying letters of recommendation and testimonials, in favor of these celebrated Watches.

A gold medal was awarded the Company by the American Institute at New York in 1857.

The Company also received the first premium—a gold medal from the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, in 1858.

These Watches have now been in market for nearly ten years, during which time they have been tested as to accuracy, durability, and reliability in every conceivable manner, and have proved themselves to be the most satisfactory time-pieces ever offered to the public.

This result has been brought about by a strict application of mechanical science to the construction of the Watch from its very inception, rendering it when finished, mathematically correct in all its proportions, and necessarily as perfect a timekeeper as it is possible to make.

The Company have tested their Watches in many instances, by actual daily noting, and the result of this test has been that they have exhibited a rate equal in regularity to the best marine chronometer.

From the Prairie Farmer, Oct. 1860.

AMERICAN WATCHES.—Nearly a year ago, we received from Messrs. Robbins & Appleton, General Agents of the American Watch Company, and paid for a good looking watch, "warranted," with the request that after thorough trial we should say what we thought of it, editorially. It has been our constant companion nearly a year. We have had no fault to find with the way it has ticked the time. We do not want a better time-piece than this has proved to be thus far. Once regulated (and we regulated it ourself) it has scarcely varied a half minute a month from "transit time." Added to its quality as a good time keeper, it is honestly and substantially made. Were we going to purchase, we should prefer an American watch.

Office of the Tribune,
New York, Oct 27, 1859.

American Watch Company, Waltham,

Gentlemen,—Having carried one of your watches for the last eight years. I can say confidently that they will do, and may be bought with assurance that they will keep time. I believe the watch unsurpassed.

HORACE GREELEY.
New York, Aug. 2, 1860.

Gentlemen:—In reply to yours of 25th ulto, we take pleasure in stating that the American watch now in use upon our railroad, has varied only six seconds, in a little over six months.

Respectfully,
S. W. & W. A. TORREY,
Contractors on the Rar. and Del. Bay R. R.
To Messrs. Robbins & Appleton.

Boston, Sept. 27, 1859.

Mr. R. E. Robbins, Treasurer Amer. Watch Co.:

Dear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to comply with your request for a report of the performance of the American Watch I purchased of you Dec. 2, 1858. It was set on that day, and the variation from true time to the 29th of February, 1859, when I let it run down, was ten second fast. From that time to the present, it has run with nearly perfect steadiness, having during the eight months remained at from seven to nine seconds fast, and this with uncommonly rough usage. I can commend your manufacture in the highest terms.

Yours truly,
JAMES H. CLAPP,
Firm of Clapp, Fuller & Brown, Bankers, Boston.

The following named gentlemen may be referred to in relation to these Watches:

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Me.;	John G. Saxe, Vermont;
N. P. Willis, New York;	Hon. N. P. Banks, Mass;
Horace Greeley;	Frank Leslie;
Cyrus W. Field, New York;	Wm. H. Cary, N. Y.;
Paul Morphy, New Orleans;	Norman Wiard, Wis;
Dr. J. Marion Sims;	Prof. Bartlett, West Pt;
Lieut. H. A. Wise, U. S. N.;	Col. W. J. Hardee, U. S. A;
S. I. Prime, D. D., Wh't Pls;	Wilson G. Hunt, N. Y.;
Gen. G. P. Morris, N. York;	Peter Cooper, N. York.

CAUTION.—As our Watch is now extensively counterfeited by foreign manufacturers, we have to inform the public that no watch is of our production which is unaccompanied by a certificate of genuineness, bearing the number of the watch, and signed by our Treasurer, R. E. Robbins, or by our predecessors, Appleton, Tracy & Co.

As these watches are for sale by jewelers generally throughout the Union, the American Watch Company do not solicit orders for single watches.

THE DESERTER.

AN ANECDOTE OF NAPOLEON THE FIRST.

(CONCLUDED.)

"I thank you, comrade," replied Pierre.

"Why! hast thou nothing to say to me?"

"Nothing."

"What! not one word of adieu to thy sweetheart?—to thy sister?

"A sweetheart? a sister? I never had either."

"To thy father?"

"He is no more. Two months ago he died in my arms."

"Thy mother, then?"

"My mother!"—and Pierre, whose voice suddenly and totally changed, repeated—"my mother! Ah, comrade, do not utter that name—for I have never heard that name—I have never said it in my heart—without feeling melted like a child; and even now, methinks, if I were to speak her ——"

"What then?"

"The tears would come—and tears do not become a man. * * * Tears!" continued he, "tears, when I have but a few hours to live! Ah! there would not be much courage in that."

"Thou art stern, comrade. I think I have, thank God, as much courage as other people; and yet I would not be ashamed of weeping, were I to speak of my mother."

"Are you serious?" said Pierre, eagerly seizing the officer's hand. "You, a man and a soldier, and not ashamed to weep?"

"When speaking of my mother? Certainly not. My mother is so good, so kind. She loves me much; and I, too, love her dearly."

"She loves you? and you love her?—Oh! then I may, indeed, tell you all! My heart is full—it must have vent; and however strange my feelings appear to you, I am sure you will not laugh at them. Listen, then; for what you said just now is quite true. A man is glad, when about to die, to have a heart into which he can pour out his own. Will you listen to me and not laugh at me?"

"Surely I will listen, Pierre. A dying man must ever excite compassionate sympathy."

"You must know that since I came into this world, I never loved but one being—that being was my mother. But her I loved as none loved—with all that was in me of life and energy. While yet a babe, I used to read her eyes, as she read mine; I guessed her thoughts and she knew mine. She was the heart of my heart, and I the heart of hers. I have never had either sweetheart or wife; I never had a friend; my mother was everything to me. Well, I was summoned to take up arms; and when they told me I must leave her, in a paroxysm of despair I declared that they might drag me from limb to limb, but never should they take me from her alive. With one word spoken in her holy fortitude and strong courage she changed my whole purpose:

"'Pierre,' said she, 'you must go—it is my wish.'

"I knelt before her, and I said, 'I will go, mother.'"

"'Pierre,' she added, "thou hast been a good son, and I thank God for it; but the duties of a son are not the only ones a man has to fulfill. Every citizen owes himself to his country; it calls thee—obey! Thou art going to be a soldier. From this moment thy life is no longer thy own; it is thy country's. If its interests demand it, lay it down cheerfully. If it be the will of God that thou shouldst die before me, I should weep for thee my heart's tears, but I would say, 'He gave, and He has taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord!' Go, now, and if thou love thy mother, do thy duty.' Oh, how precious those holy words! I have never forgotten them. 'Do thy duty,' she said. Now, the duty of a soldier was always, and in all things, to obey; and in all things, and always, I obeyed. It was to go straight forward—to face danger without hesitation—without second thought; and I went straight forward—faced danger without hesitation—without a second thought.—Those who saw me thus, as it were, seek to meet the bullets, said, 'There is a brave fellow!' They might have better said, 'There is a man who loves his mother!'

"One day a letter brought me the tidings that she was ill—my own poor mother!—I longed to go to her. I asked for leave of absence; it was not granted. I remembered her last words—'If thou love thy mother, do thy duty.' I submitted. A little after I heard that she was dead. Oh! then my senses forsook me; at any risk I determined to travel to the country. Whence proceeded so arduous, so impetuous a desire to see a place once more where my mother had just died? I will tell you, and as you have a mother, and as she loves you, and you love her, you will understand me.

"We peasants of Morvan are a simple and confiding race. We have not received the instruction, nor attained the knowledge that they have in the cities; but we have our beliefs, which the townsfolk call superstitions. What matters the name? Be they superstitions or beliefs, we have them, and clever would be the man that could uproot them.

"Now, one of these beliefs to which we cling the most, is that which attributes to the first flower that blows in the grave mould, such a virtue that he who gathers it is certain of never forgetting the dead, and of never being forgotten by them. Belief, how dear, how sweet! With it, death has no terrors; for death, without forgetting, or being forgotten, is but a sweet sleep, but calm repose after a long toil. That flower—I panted to see its bud—I panted to gather it! I abandoned my post and went on my way. After ten days of long and weary march, I reached my mother's grave. The earth seemed yet fresh—no flower appeared. I waited. Six weeks elapsed, and then one lovely morning I saw a little blue flower—'forget-me-not. As I plucked it I shed glad tears, for methought that little flower was my mother's soul; that she had felt that I was near, and that, under the form of that flower she had given herself to my heart once more.

"There was nothing now to detain me in the country, for my father had soon followed my mother to the grave, and I had plucked my precious flower, what more did I want? I remember my mother's charge—'Do thy duty!' I sought the gens d'armes, and I said, 'I am a deserter—arrest me.' * * * And now I am to die; and if, as you assured me, I have in you a friend, I die without regret, for you will do for me the only service I require. The flower which, at the risk of my life, I plucked from the grave, is here, in a little case next to my heart. Promise me that you will see that they do not take it from me. It is the link which unites me to my mother; and if I thought it would be broken—oh! I should not have the courage to die. * * * Say, do you promise to what I ask of you?"

"I promise," said the officer.

"Your hand, that I may press it to my heart. You are very kind to me; and if the Almighty God were in his omnipotence to give me my life a second time, I would devote it to you."

The friends parted.

The next day had dawned. They arrived at the place of execution; and already had the fatal sentence been read, when the low murmur that ran through the ranks changed into almost deafening shouts:

"The Emperor! the Emperor! Long live the Emperor!"

He appeared, dismounted from his horse; and then, with his short, quick step, he walked up to the condemned.

"Pierre," said he to him. Pierre gazed at him, and made an effort to speak, but a sudden stupor seemed to overwhelm him. "Pierre," continued the Emperor, "remember your words last night. God gives thee life a second time; devote it not to me, but to France! She, too, is a kind mother!—Love her as thou didst thy first—thine own."

He then turned to depart, and greeting shouts of admiration and love followed him till he was out of sight.

Some years after this a captain of the Old Guard fell mortally wounded on the field of Waterloo.

Amid the din of battle he was heard to shout in his death pangs:

"Long live the Emperor! France forever! My mother! My mother!"

It was Pierre Pitois!

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five or eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

One or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One or two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One or two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles has cured the worst cases of dropsy.

By strictly following the directions in the pamphlet around each bottle, and a judicious application of the

SALT RHEUM OINTMENT,
SCROFULA OINTMENT and HEALING OINTMENT,

every sore and ulcer, of whatever kind or nature, except cancer, that has taken root, is perfectly and permanently cured.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

Canker

It extends to the stomach, ensuing

Dyspepsia

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Kidneys

Your stomach is

Raw and Inflamed,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

Cure:

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the Piles.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly. DONALD KENNEDY.

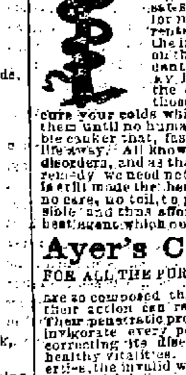
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption,

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE patients in advanced stages of the disease.



We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the United States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil, to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford to those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

MOFFAT'S

Life Pills and Phenix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description: King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles; upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

The Disunion Movement.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 20—3 P. M.

The conservative sentiment of the South appears to be disgusted at the increasing sectional wrangle, and considers that the Northern States should promptly convene their Legislatures, and repeal their unfriendly laws, and urge a Convention of all the States to meet, and a prompt and united effort be made to preserve the Union and country from bankruptcy, anarchy and ruin.

CHARLESTON Nov. 20.

This has been the most gloomy day yet among the merchants. A heavy cotton house and other smaller houses have suspended.

The banks have resolved to cooperate together and still positively refuse to make any discounts.

Cotton is declining. The stock on hand is now 50,000 bales.

Several of the heavy planters refuse to send forward their cotton at present, preferring to wait for a reaction.

Sterling exchange is down to 95. Financial matters are rapidly approaching a climax. Trade is completely prostrated.

News of the suspension of the Farmer's Bank of Richmond was received this P. M. during business hours. The banks here are determined to hold out as long as the New York banks do.

Capt. Barry, of the steamship Columbia, has been presented with a golded headed cane to-day, for raising the Palmetto flag on his vessel. Rev. Mr. Yates made a speech on the occasion, during which he said that if the South required it he would go into the foremost ranks with a bible in one hand and a revolver in the other.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 20.

The Farmer's Bank of Virginia has suspended specie payment, and resolved to pursue a course of policy to prepare for early redemption. Other banks will follow as a prudential measure during the present pressure. There is a terrible pressure in the money market, and nothing is doing in the produce market. Flour is dull and declining, with few sales, and the market is overstocked. All the mills have stopped operation excepting the Gallego Mills. Wheat has declined ten cents a bushel.

Suspended.

BOSTON, Nov. 21—3 P. M.

The names of the Sophomores suspended at Harvard College yesterday, for hazing the Freshmen, are as follows:

Chas. Jackson, of Boston, Chas. Everleon, of Staten Island, Augustus Baker, of Albany, A. C. Hazelton, of Philadelphia, Geo. D. Ward, of Salem, Chas. T. Fearing, of N. Y., J. T. Coldreth, of Cincinnati, H. J. Edwards, of Boston. Jackson was dismissed for two years, the others for one year.

Fire at Kenosha.

KENOSHA, WIS., Nov. 21—3 P. M.

The house occupied by Silas Ames, and the house occupied by Oscar Schaff, on the Park, were burned between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning. The fire was first discovered in the shed in the rear of Schaff's house. Loss probably about $4,000, including household goods. Caused probably from ashes, though many suspect incendiarism. Ames lost no goods.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—9 P. M.

Counterfeit 5's of the Mechanics' Bank, Newark; 2's of the International Bank, Portland, Maine; and 1's of the Marine Bank, Boston, Mass., are in circulation; also quarter eagles.

Robert Schatz, a German, committed suicide last evening, by shooting himself, in a Harlem railroad car.

The Herald's Washington correspondent indicates a probable rupture in the Cabinet on the secession question.

Letter from Gov. Letcher of Virginia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 21—9 P. M.

The Enquirer to-day publishes an important letter from Gov. Letcher, in reply to that of Jno. G. Brisbane, of Pennsylvania, who ridicules secession, and states that two hundred Virginians have tendered him the command in the event of disunion, &c.—The Governor, in his reply, administers a severe rebuke to the Northern nullification States, and shows that dereliction, on the part of the North, is the prime cause of the present dangerous trouble. He advises the people of the North to correct public sentiment at home, and discharge the constitutional obligations with strict fidelity. He then indicates his determination to defend the State of Virginia, and stand as a mediator—an armed mediator, if necessary, between the Southern States and their assailants, come from what quarter they may.

This letter creates great sensation here. All the Richmond and Peterboro banks have suspended specie payment.

Burch Divorce Case.

NAPIERVILLE, Nov. 21—9 P. M.

Reading the testimony of Carlisle Boyd, was completed this morning. He admits receiving presents of a ring and smoking cap from Mrs. Burch; that some slight familiarities had taken place between them; Mrs. Burch had expressed friendship and partiality for witness, but never encouraged any criminal act or evinced any inclination for such; admits receiving letters from Mrs. B., one of which requests the return of all articles and letters of hers in his possession; others accusing him of retaining a smoking cap to show as evidence of shame against her, and requests him to leave the city; after what had passed she could not expect the confidence of her husband, while he remained there.

Witness denies positively any criminal act, or having noticed any desire for such. Copies of letters to Mrs. Burch from witness are attached, in which he denies in word or thought having done her wrong, and expresses surprise at what could have extorted from her false charges against him.

The deposition of Anna Humphrey was read merely to show that she saw Mrs Burch and Stuart together in the dressing-room at Stuart's house during the party there, while Mrs. Burch was mending her dress, torn dancing. Saw nothing immodest or improper between them.

MONETARY.

WEDNESDAY P. M., Nov. 21, 1860.

There was evidently a better feeling in our money market to-day, owing in a measure doubtless to the improving aspect of matters at New York. Although some of the banks refused to sell exchange at any price, the majority were accommodating their customers to a limited extent at 2 ₩ cent. premium. As we stated in our last report, the supply of bankable funds is increasing, and produce dealers have less difficulty every day in obtaining currency. In regard to Illinois currency, so far as we can learn, people are more inclined to await the developments of the future than submit to any material sacrifice. The conviction seems general that there is hardly a probability of its being any worse, and as soon as the stock market recovers it will surely rise in value. The result is that the brokers are not reaping so much of a harvest from the "panic" as they had reason to look for a few days ago. Some of our pork packers who held a large amount of Illinois currency, instead of sacrificing 8 ₩ cent. discount, have turned it to profitable account by sending it to Chicago for investment in hogs.

As all our readers are more or less interested on the subject of Illinois money just now, we append the money article from the Chicago Tribune of this morning in full:

As might be expected we have had to-day a decidedly feverish money market. The action of our city banks in throwing out a ven of the Illinois banks took most people by surprise, and produced a panic among those least able to bear it. During the afternoon laboring men and servant girls have besieged our banking offices anxiously changing their Illinois and Wisconsin currency at 10 ₩ cent. discount. The first breath of distrust is sure to drive them in droves to convert their bills into coin at any sacrifice. It is one of the most unpleasant things possible to see this class of people fleeced out of the proceeds of their honest toil.

BANKS THROWN OUT.—We repeat the list of banks thrown out to-day, lest some of our readers did not preserve it from this morning's issue:

American Exchange Bank.
Bank of Aurora.
Bank of the Commonwealth.
Bank of Raleigh.
Corn Exchange Bank.
National Bank.
State Bank of Illinois.

Parties here believe that most if not all the banks in the State will promptly respond to the call for additional securities. If so their bills will be perfectly good. Rates of exchange for gold will doubtless rule high for some time to come; but we doubt not the bills of our Illinois and Wisconsin banks will pass from hand to hand as usual. As to the bills of the banks thrown out here, no rate has been fixed upon them.—Till the securities are put up, or something more definite is known about them, we presume they will in a day or two be bought by the brokers at from 15 to 25 ₩ cent. discount. The latter figure was the highest any one would offer to-day.

Exchange was sold rather more freely by some of the bankers to customers at 5@6 ₩ cent. premium; 6@10 ₩ cent. was paid in the street and by outsiders. Buying rate 4¾@5 ₩ cent. Some of the banks buy and sell at the same figure. We presume the high rates now offering will soon increase the supply.

Gold buying at 5@8 per cent; selling at 10 per cent and firm. The demand, as above stated, comes mainly from those who have been frightened, and are determined to convert currency at any price. Let everybody say to those poor people, keep your currency. It will become better instead of worse.

The produce business is inactive. Very few bills are offering. The retail trade, if we judge from the streets, is active. Probably the people are anxious to purchase while their money is good. Again we say keep cool. It will be no worse.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.

We have the following money and stock report by telegraph from New York to-day:

Money is working easier. Stocks dull and down. C & R I 50¾; M & M 7¾; Del L & W 75; N J C 109; C B & Q 50½; C C & C 88; G & C 57¼; I C scrip 52½; Pan 109¼; N J 125; M S 18¾; do gtd 26¼; M C 45; Read 32¾; Hart 14; do pfd 62¾; Hud 40; Erie 26, N Y C 71; Pac Mail 74¾; Cumb 8; D & H 83; Va 6's 78; Mo 68; Had 2d bds 100, Stocks at the 2d board were better, but without activity. THOMPSON BROS.'s Reporter states that the currency panic to-day has been equal to that of '57; they quote all bills South of Washington 20@25 per cent discount; Illinois and Wisconsin 15; Ohio, Indiana, Ky., and Canada 3@5; Md. and Penn. 1@2; N. Y. State and New England ¼.

The Post says that the Presidents of the leading banks are discussing a project for relieving the community, by issuing scrip, based on bills receivable of U. S. stocks and other approved collaterals, to pass in liquidation of bills to each other, the scrip to bear 7 per cent interest. The banks thus hope to be soon in a position to meet the wants of their dealers. An expansion in loans of several millions of dollars is looked for this week.

THE MONEY PANIC AT DETROIT.

The Free Press of Tuesday says:

There was a good deal of excitement in the money market yesterday. The rates of discount on western money, which advanced to 5 ₩ cent Saturday afternoon, went up to 10 ₩ cent yesterday, and there was little disposition to buy even at that. The banks will not take it at all except from their customers, whom they charge 5 ₩ cent. The market was feverish and became more and more so as the day advanced. The reported failures of two New York houses and of the bank at Sing Sing did not tend to allay the excitement. Late last evening a dispatch was received that several of the Illinois banks will be thrown out at Chicago to-day. The effect of this remains to be seen. The small dealers, grocers, &c., who received western all last week in ordinary business transactions, began to discount yesterday, which brings the panic right home to the pocket of every man.

On Friday, at Cleveland, western currency was thrown out altogether. At Louisville on the same day it was quoted at 3 ₩ cent discount.

REASONS FOR A "PANIC."

The N. Y. Tribune of Monday says:

The country was never before so rich and strong as it is now—full of Grain, full of Cattle and Swine, full of Specie, full of everything. There was never before a time when a financial tornado has less cause than now—consequently, never before one when it would do less real harm. Our Exports are large beyond precedent; Specie has ceased to flow from us, and must soon begin to pour heavily in upon us. Our Mines, our Herds, our Farms, our Factories, are all doing well: a panic now may save us from one when we should not be half so able to stand it. So let us all take hold and get up a roaring, smashing, high old Panic!

BANKS DISCREDITED.

By a dispatch from Philadelphia, received here this evening, we learn that the broker's of that city refuse to take the notes of the Bank of Commerce, at Erie, and the Pittston Bank.

The receipts of wheat to-day show a material falling off, the total being only 33,514 bus. The shipments for the past 24 hours amount to 89,185 bushels. The market was very dull, and prices close nominally 1c lower than the ruling figures on 'Change yesterday, buyers generally offering only 72c for No. 1 spring in store, and 70c for No. 2, new receipts. The amount changing hands was very trifling, as receivers, though more anxious to realize than yesterday, were not disposed to sell at the prices offered, except where they had positive instructions to do so. The market for flour was nominally unchanged. Buyers offered $3,75@4 for fair to choice country Extras. The receipts of hogs, live and dressed, amounted to 315, but a good share of these were purchased in Chicago, our packers finding that the most ready and profitable way to dispose of their Illinois currency. The tone of the market was rather better than yesterday, and sales were readily made at $4,50@4,75 for live, and $5,75@6,00 for dressed.

Grain freights were nominally higher, but we heard of no engagements. Propellers were held at 12½ for wheat to Buffalo.

After 'Change there was nothing whatever done in the wheat market, and it would have been impossible to sell this evening at anything like the prices offered early in the day. Shippers had a bad attack of the blues, and after getting the second despatches from New York withdrew from the market in toto.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF PRODUCE OVER THE RIPON AND WOLF RIVER R. R.

Messrs. HORTON & FOWLER, Produce and Commission Merchants, received two car loads of flour to-day, from Waukau, Winnebago County—the first shipment over the Ripon and Wolf River R. R. The flour was shipped by Messrs. BEAN & Co. The kind of wheat they raise up in that section is a sufficient guarantee to the quality of the flour. Waukau is situated some twelve or fifteen miles from Ripon, between the latter place and Omro. The work on the line of the new Railroad is being pushed forward vigorously, and in all probability it will be completed through to Menasha before spring.

CHICAGO MARKET, NOVEMBER 20.

Receipts at Chicago yesterday included 4,430 bbls flour, 49,060 bus wheat, 46,745 bus corn, 1,761 bus oats, 332 bus rye, 1,706 bus barley. In reference to the market the Tribune says:

The receipts of hogs to-day were only 1,370. Under this light supply, and a better demand by shippers and Milwaukee buyers, there was a firmer feeling—the sales, however, being rather limited at $4,75@5,—25 gross—the outside figure being paid for a lot of 199, averaging 290 lbs. The light receipts, however, rendered the market very quiet. Beef Cattle were unchanged. Provisions are still inactive. A lot of 1,000 green sides were sold at 7¾c packed, and 500 dry salted sides changed hands at 8c packed. Lard is quiet and nominal at 10¾c. Tallow firm at 9¾c.

There was a better feeling in the market for breadstuffs to-day. Wheat advanced 1½@2c, and was more active; but after the New York dispatches were received, the market was scarcely as firm. About 50,000 bushels changed hands at 77@78c for Northwestern Club; 76@76½c for No. 1 spring; 73@74½c for No. 2 do; and 66c for rejected do. Flour was more firmly held, but buyers would not agree to any advance on yesterday's prices, and there was no visible improvement. About 1,200 bbls were sold at $4@4,20 for good to choice spring extras, and $3,20 for good superfine. Corn was in good demand and 1@2c higher—the market being more active at 32@33c for No. 1; 31c for No. 2; and 27@28c for new corn. Oats were quiet at 17c in store, and 18½c afloat. Rye was steady at 45c. Barley was dull and heavy, with sales by sample at 47½@50c on track. Timothy Seed was quiet and steady at $2,25. Highwines dull at 16@16½c.

Freights remain quiet and unchanged. Two vessels were engaged to-day, at 10c for wheat to Buffalo, and 11c to St. Catharines.

HOGS AT LOUISVILLE.

The Courier of Saturday says:

The market for hogs remains exceedingly dull, and packers are not disposed to purchase lots of size. They are freely offered at 6c nett without finding buyers. There are several thousand in the market for sale, but packers will not make any offer. The weather to-day was unfavorable for slaughtering, and only one house was in operation for a while in the morning, and the total number slaughtered to-day was 590 head, with 2,260 head left over in the pens in the evening. A large number of the November purchases are due, and will no doubt arrive before the close of the present week. All of the houses, with the exception of Watkins, Hurt & Co., expect to be in full blast by the first of next week, and they do not expect to commence until about the 25th of the present month.

Pickets, No	....	753,420	457,455

LUMBER—The market for Lumber during the week, like all departments of trade, has been very quiet.—The unsettled state of the money markets East having caused a very material decline in wheat, farmers throughout the country are marketing but little, and their orders for lumber are therefore confined to immediate necessities. Thus, the demand by country dealers has been light, and our city dealers complain of dullness. Notwithstanding this, however, there is not much disposition to ease down in prices. In the yards common lumber is almost uniformly held at $12. The stock in the city is comparatively small, and in fewer hands than usual, and this imparts a degree of confidence among dealers which would not probably otherwise exist.

The continued low stage of water on the Illinois River limits the trade by the Canal to the towns and cities along its banks; and also to a great extent cuts off the demand for upper qualities which usually takes place at St. Louis, and points on the Missouri River about this time.

The receipts during the past week were comparatively light; but the cargoes thrown on the market were generally of an inferior quality, and they were rather difficult to sell at previous quotations. The following are a few of the sales of cargoes during the week:

A cargo of fair Green Bay, mill run, at $10,50 off the dock; cargo of prime Grand River strips at $19,50; cargo of common mixed lumber from Two Rivers, at $8,75; cargo of schr Kitty Grant, from White Lake, mixed, at $9,75; cargo of schr Westchester, from Grand River, at $9,00; cargo of mixed lumber, from Grand River, per schr E. G. Gray, at $5.50 and $10; cargo of schr Wm. Tell, from Kalamazoo, at $10,00; cargo of schr Blue Bell, from Grand River, mixed, at $9,50; cargo of schr North Star, from Grand River, mixed, at $9; cargo mill run from Muskegon, good qualities, at $12; cargo of uppers, from Muskegon, select and very choice, at $20.

SHINGLES—During the week there were several cargoes of prime shingles sold at $3.20 afloat, and one cargo at $3,80 afloat—30 days. Sawed shingles are scarce and in good demand at $3@3,25 afloat, according to quality. The uniform price for A 1 Rogue River Shingles in the yards, is $3,50, and prime sawed also command the same figure.

LATH—There is a good demand for cargoes of lath at $2 afloat, at which about a dozen deck loads were sold during the week.—Chicago Tribune.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 9—Noon.—The Brokers' Circular reports the sales in the Liverpool cotton market for the week at 55,000 bales, of which 1,000 bales were on speculation and 8,000 to exporters. The market opened unsettled, and qualities considerably advanced, but after the arrival of the Africa, and the promulgation of her news, a slight reaction took place; the market closed at an advance of of ⅛@¼ over the prices of the previous Friday. The estimated sales to-day, Friday, are 10,000 bales, of which 4,000 have been taken on speculation and for export. Market closes firm—the improvement is mostly in the middling qualities. The following are the authorized quotations: fair Orleans 7¾; fair Mobile 7¾.

Breadstuffs—Opened with but little inquiry, with weak prices. Corn—all qualities have slightly declined. Beef dull. Pork firm.

MARINE ITEMS.

Schooner Rocket Sunk on Lake Huron—Vessel and Cargo a Total Loss.

We learn by a despatch from Port Huron, received in this city yesterday morning, that the schooner Rocket, hence for Buffalo loaded with wheat, had collided with the bark Ocean Wave off Forestville, Lake Huron, and sunk in deep water; vessel and cargo, of course, both lost. The Rocket sailed from this port on the 14th inst. for Buffalo. Her cargo consisted of 19,500 bus wheat, insured for $17,200, in the following companies: Home, of N. Y., $7,000; Phœnix, of Milwaukee, $5,200; Commercial, of Milwaukee, $5,000.—The Rocket was owned in Buffalo; was a new vessel, and one of the handsomest and best on the lakes. We understand that she was insured for $12,000 in the Buffalo Mutual.

THE WABASH VALLEY.

The propeller Wabash Valley arrived from Chicago yesterday to take her place on the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway Line for the winter. She is commanded by Capt. MORGAN, formerly of the steamer Comet. The Wabash Valley is a staunch and reliable steamer, and is provided with excellent accommodations for passengers. Capt. MORGAN is thoroughly familiar with the navigation of the Lake, and well acquainted with every harbor on each side. It is expected that an immense quantity of produce will go forward by this route during the coming winter.

THE MOHAWK.

The propeller Mohawk, up to last evening, had not left for Buffalo; but we learn she will take her departure in tow of some steamer as soon as the weather shall be more favorable.—Det. Free Press, Tuesday.

LAST BOATS FOR LAKE SUPERIOR.

The steamers Planet and Cleveland, laden with supplies for Lake Superior, took their departure Sunday night. Both had full cargoes, leaving still a large surplus. They will probably be the last boats of the season, as at present no arrangements have been made for others to follow.—Ibid.

VERDICT AGAINST AN INSURANCE COMPANY.

In the Court of Common Pleas, at Cleveland, on Saturday, in the case of Massey et al vs. Buffalo Mutual Insurance Co., to recover insurance on bark Buckeye State, a verdict for plaintiff for $7,156 85 was rendered.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

DETAINED BY STRESS OF WEATHER.

The wind since Sunday morning has been blowing violently from the south-west; we shall consequently expect to hear of more or less disasters resulting from it. The schooners G. L. Newman, Rival, Avenger, Star of Hope, and Flying Cloud, are here, detained through stress of weather, bound down. The scow-brig Gladiator, schooners Somerset, Africa, and C. Reeve, are also here discharging freight. There are also other smaller craft here whose destination we know nothing of.

A fleet of some forty sail are in the river St. Clair, bound down, but are detained in consequence of the heavy south-east wind prevailing yesterday. We learn also of a large number below, bound up, detained for like reasons.—Det. Free Press, Tuesday.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'Ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man " Can you hease me of an 'eadache ?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked upon as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and giv me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of two little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, with a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician,—Well. Mrs. Jones, how is that headache ?

Mrs. Jones—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician—You can get them at any Druggist's. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs Jones—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers of this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers; either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

DID YOU ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising sauce, invented by the renowned Soyer, for the London Reform Club, is, since the decease of M. Soyer, manufactured by the well known house of Crosse & Blackwell, London, from the original recipe and is the only sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation, among American epicures, and is highly approved of as a condiment to all dishes.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try Mons. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish receipt; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of slow and weak digestion."—The Lancet.
"Savory, piquant and spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.
"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm,

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.
